When the Best of Home selections of our readers' best work ran in the December issue, one problem nagged us here at the magazine – what should we do with the jobs we didn't pick?

Given the quality of many of the entries, we felt that plenty of good projects didn't see publication ... and that we should give these works recognition as well. So, here's the best of the rest in the 2004 Best of Home competition.

And, don't forget – we'll be asking for 2005 entries in mid-summer.
